

What Gift do you give a King?

Dear Nekesa (Harvester),

As the Christmas season approaches we find ourselves thinking of our loved ones and what we can do to give them the 'perfect gift'. As we stop to reflect on the many blessings this year has brought us, I can only think of one Perfect Gift- Jesus, our Lord and Savior!

This season let us remember the true gift God gave to each of us; how His Son paid the ultimate price in giving Himself as the perfect sacrificial lamb. What gift can we give to our Lord this year? While I know we can never out give our Lord and Savior, I believe we would be remiss to forget to give a special offering to the ultimate Giver.

The wisemen brought Him gold, frankincense, and myrrh. The angels sang His praise in the heavens on the day of His birth, declaring to the shepherds in the fields of His coming.

So what can we give the ultimate Giver?

Mark 9:36-37 'Taking a child, He set him before them, and taking him in His arms, He said to them, "Whoever receives one child like this in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me does not receive Me, but Him who sent Me." His desire has always been for us to receive Him.

What does it truly mean to receive? The dictionary defines receiving as being given, presented with, awarded something, and take delivery of.

When we receive the little children, we are giving, presenting, and awarding them with our love, time, energy, attention, and finances. Those of you that have children understand the true price of this gift.

When we receive the little ones that the Lord has placed in our care, we are receiving Jesus Himself and in turn our Father God. Is He not worth the same effort this Christmas as we give our families and friends, to receive them and give to them?

At the Bungoma Bible Children's Home we want to receive these children in the same manner we receive our families for Christmas. We would like to invite you to give above and beyond this Christmas to give your children in Bungoma Bible Children's Home an extra special Christmas, a gift beyond their daily needs. We truly hope for more than enough to share Christmas Joy with our children.

Imagine them waking on Christmas morning, each having a special gift and a special meal for the day. A day they will never forget because of YOUR gift. We believe, like you, that no child should wake up Christmas morning to just another day. Christmas is a special time to focus on the Perfect Gift of Jesus Christ through sharing gifts with each other and receiving each other with the same manner we receive Jesus.

Would you give an additional financial gift of $20, $50, $100 or whatever you can, to give your children a special Christmas that in some small way reflects the Perfect Love and Perfect Gift of Jesus Christ?

Forever Grateful,
